

MINUTE OF JURY SELECTION

Call for a Research Fellowship Project CRC1310.A6 – Predictability in Evolution

On 3rd January 2024, at 10:00, the jury selection formed by Dr. Isabel Gordo, Dr. Marta Lourenço and Dr. Elsa Seixas met with the purpose to analyse the applications to a research fellowship for a technician position, in the scope of the project 6A of CRC1310 – Predictability in Evolution - funded by Deutsche Forschungsgemeinschaft (DFG) and Fundação Calouste Gulbenkian (FCG).

The call was open from 12th December 2023 until 27th December. The jury analysed the documents included in the applications.

The call received 5 applications that were classified with the following way:

Name	Full application	CV and previous experience (60%)	Motivation letter (20%)	Evaluation (máx. 80%)
1 João Brandão	Yes	60%	20%	80%
2 Zain Ul Abdeen	Yes	50%	20%	70%
3 Pilar Valente	Yes	30%	20%	50%
4 Carla Pestana	Yes	30%	10%	40%
5 Franciso Silva	No	20%	10%	30%

After considering all applications, the jury decided by unanimity to recommend the hiring of candidate 1, João Brandão, based on his experience in statistics, metagenomics and analysis of genetic markers in the area of microbiology and the motivation to develop the project by using his skills to analyse data previously obtained within the project to characterize processes that occur during several months of bacterial evolution in the mammalian gut.

All the candidates were informed of the deliberations of the Jury on 3rd of January 2024. If there are no complaints during the 10 working days following the publication of this minute, the decisions herein communicated will be considered as effective.

There being no further matters to discuss, the meeting for which these minutes were drawn up was closed and signed by all the members of the Jury.
